SANDEE Call for Research Concept Notes 2026

The South Asian Network for Development and Environmental Economics (SANDEE), hosted by ICIMOD, invites research concept notes on the economics of climate risks, natural resource use, and environmental change. Grants target early-career researchers from South Asia and the HKH region and support projects addressing climate/environmental risks, resilient economies and landscapes, and regional/global policy impacts. Grants typically range from USD 20,000–30,000 over two years, prioritizing interdisciplinary, cross-border, and transboundary research with a strong economic analysis and potential policy impact.

Location: South Asia & Hindu Kush Himalaya Region

Deadline: 31 December, 2025
