

People's Representatives Contribute to Relief Fund to Melamchi Flood Survivors

RASTRIYA SAMACHAR SAMITI

2021 JUN 20, 8:55, KATHMANDU

A view of a submerged house in Melamchi Bazaar of Melamchi Municipality-11 in Sindhupalchowk district, on Wednesday, June 16, 2021. Flooded Indrawati River gushed into Melamchi Bazaar following incessant rainfall. Photo: RSS

People's representatives of Melamchi Municipality-1, Sindhupalchowk have decided to contribute their one-month; salary to the flood survivors' relief and rehabilitation fund. The meeting on Saturday of the ward committee took a decision to this end, according to ward chair Krishna Prasad Chaulagain.

Accordingly, ward chair Chaulagain will contribute Rs. 26,730 while executive member Sabitri Karki's contribution will be 12,870. Ward members Bhimsen Khatiwada, Khamba Singh Tamang, and Shanti Nepal contribute Rs. 9,900 each.

Unprecedented floodwater from the Melamchi and Indrawati rivers caused massive loss of life and property in ward number 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11 of the municipality on June 15 night